- New accounts grew 16% in the fourth quarter of 2025 over the comparable quarter in 2024. Full year 2025 new accounts grew 21% compared to full year 2024.
- CapsoCam Plus® used by over 161,000 patients as of December 31, 2025.
- Submitted 510(k) application to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for its in-house developed AI-assisted module for CapsoCam Plus®.
- Completed a $14 million private placement of public equity financing on March 16, 2026.

Management Commentary

"2025 was a year of important operational and strategic progress for CapsoVision," said Johnny Wang, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We continued to expand adoption of CapsoCam Plus®, advanced our AI-enabled analytics capabilities, and submitted our AI module for CapsoCam Plus to the FDA, marking an important milestone as we work to enhance the efficiency and clinical value of capsule endoscopy. During the year, we also continued development of our next-generation colon capsule in ongoing dialogue with the FDA, as we refine the regulatory pathway for that program, as well as for our CapsoCam UGI pancreas initiative. We recently completed a $14 million private placement with participation from new and existing investors, reinforcing confidence in our long-term strategy and supporting continued investment in product innovation and pipeline advancement. As we enter 2026, we remain focused on disciplined execution, as we continue to advance our capsule platform and expand the role of AI-driven insights in gastrointestinal disease screening and diagnostics."

Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2025 Financial Results

Fourth quarter 2025 revenue was $3.9 million, a 13% increase over the fourth quarter of 2024. Full year 2025 revenue was $13.6 million, a 15% increase compared to full year 2024. The primary growth driver was an increase in the number of CapsoCam Plus capsules sold.

Fourth quarter 2025 gross profit was $2.0 million, an increase of $0.2 million, or 13%, compared to the fourth quarter of 2024. Full year 2025 gross profit was $7.2 million, an increase of $0.8 million, or 12%, compared to full year 2024. Fourth quarter gross margin was 50%, compared to 50% in the fourth quarter of 2024. Full year 2025 gross margin was 53%, compared to 54% for full year 2024.

Fourth quarter 2025 operating expenses were $9.4 million, a $3.0 million increase from the fourth quarter of 2024, driven primarily by the development of the new CMOS image sensors under the development agreement with Canon Inc. and expenses for clinical trial activities associated with AI technology in small-bowel capsule and second generation of CapsoCam Colon.

Operating expenses for the year ended December 31, 2025 were $32.7 million, a $6.4 million increase compared to the year ended December 31, 2024, driven primarily by an increase in expenses associated with the development of the new CMOS image sensors under the development agreement with Canon Inc. and an increase in general and administrative expenses, as we were operating as a public company for half of the year.

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $10.1 million as of December 31, 2025.

The Company completed an initial public offering in July 2025. Net proceeds totaled $23.4 million, after deducting underwriting discounts, commissions and offering expenses. On March 16, 2026, the Company closed a $14 million private placement in public equity financing.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In this context, forward-looking statements mean statements related to future events, which may impact our expected future business and financial performance, and often contain words such as "expected", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "potential", "will", "should", "could", "would" or "may" and other words of similar meaning. Examples of these forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements concerning possible or assumed future results of operations and financial position, including the Company's expectations regarding the Company's product and clinical development efforts, the timing and receipt of regulatory submissions and approvals, the Company's plans, strategies and timing for its pipeline development (including plans to address future indications in terms of new GI pathologies, patient enrollment in support of new generation colon capsule, development of CapsoCam UGI pancreas initiative, and expanded patient populations and related timing of these efforts) and the success of the Company's plans and strategies. These forward-looking statements are based on the Company's current expectations and inherently involve significant risks and uncertainties, including those beyond the Company's control. Actual results and the timing of events could differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements as a result of these risks and uncertainties, which include, without limitation, market conditions, the Company's financial condition and the availability of cash, the failure to receive regulatory clearance and the failure to adapt the Company's products for new indications. These and other risks and uncertainties are described more fully in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including the "Risk Factors" section of the Company's prospectus filed on July 3, 2025 with the SEC, as part of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-287148), and the Company's most recent Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this press release, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise these statements, except as required by law.
